Conditions for attending the General Meeting and exercising voting rights

Shareholders may exercise their rights at the General Meeting in person or by nominee.

- a) Shareholders who wish to attend in person need to present an identity card as proof of identity, and a certificate of ownership issued by their securities account provider as proof of their shareholder status. Shareholders who are entered in the share register but fail to present a certificate of ownership may attend the General Meeting but may not vote or make proposals.
- b) Shareholders who wish to vote by nominee must sign a power of attorney in the form of a notarized document or a private document of full probative value. The power of attorney must be delivered to the representative of the Board of Directors prior to the start of the General Meeting. With regard to the certificate of ownership, the provisions of subsection a) above will apply.
- c) Shareholders may be represented by their securities account provider entered into the share register, who will act as nominee pursuant to Act CXX of 2001 on the Capital Market.

It will be a prerequisite for voting rights to be exercised that the shareholder or their nominee be entered into the share register not later than six (6) business days before the date of the General Meeting (that is, not later than 23 March 2009). Securities account providers, acting on the order of shareholders, must arrange for shareholders to be entered into the share register. Securities account providers will inform shareholders as to the deadline for the execution of orders for entry into the share register. The Company may not be held liable for the execution of orders placed with securities account providers or the consequences of any failure or omission on the part of securities account providers.

Shareholders should be aware that registration will be from 12.00 to 12.45 p.m. on the date of the General Meeting. The Company may not be held liable if a shareholder (nominee) cannot attend the General Meeting in its entirety because they register after the registration period specified above.

In the event that the General Meeting does not have a quorum, the Board of Directors will reconvene the General Meeting, with the original agenda, at the seat of the Company (1102 Budapest, Halom utca 5.), on 31 March 2009, at 13.00 p.m. The reconvened General Meeting will be deemed to have a quorum regardless of the number or votes of the attending shareholders, under the terms and conditions set out above.

The recommended resolutions and proposals related to the various agenda items will be available on the Company's website (www.allaminyomda.com) and that of the Budapest Stock Exchange from 13 March 2009.
